AMERICA'S ATTITUDE MAY BE INSISTED ON TO CHECK BICKERING

Questions Regarding Disposal of Germany's Colonies Raises Points At Variance With America's Announced Principles.

Early Declaration of Assent to American Plan May Check Annoyance of Rival Claimants.

PARIS, JANUARY 29. — (Associated Press)—The future of the colonies taken from Germany has assumed a place as one of the most interesting of the immediate basis of the many-sided problems under consideration by the supreme council of the peace conference.

Hearings are now being given to members of the conference and to colonial experts upon the disposition of the colonies. The conference is at the same time proceeding with the consideration of a general policy which shall be adopted by the five great powers.

At present it appears these powers, through the supreme council, intend to dispose of the subject, confident of the approval of its decisions by the conference itself. The hearings have already progressed to the stage where the existence of views greatly at variance with those set forth in President Wilson's 14 points, have been discussed.

This development has determined the American delegates to remind the other powers of that fact and, to urge adoption of the American plan at the very outset in order to keep the rival claimants within the bounds of fairness.

This plan, which is receiving immediate further consideration, looks to international control of the colonies, backward nationalities and tribes by individual powers or agents to be known as "Mandatories" of the League of Nations. These agents are to derive all their powers from the League and to act entirely on the lines of policy dictated by that body.

The distribution of these guardianships is to be made by the League of Nations so it again happens as in the case of many of the projects of reform that its successful application is entirely dependent on the consummation of the league.

THE STATUS OF POLAND GIVEN CONSIDERATION BY THE PEACE COUNCIL

PARIS, JANUARY 29. — (Associated Press)—The supreme council of the peace conference had before it for consideration on assembling today, the Polish question, and the instruction to be given to the allied mission to Poland, which is about to leave on its eastward journey.

The program called for the appearance of Polish and Czecho-Slovak representatives before the council to present their views.

THREE SECRET TREATIES

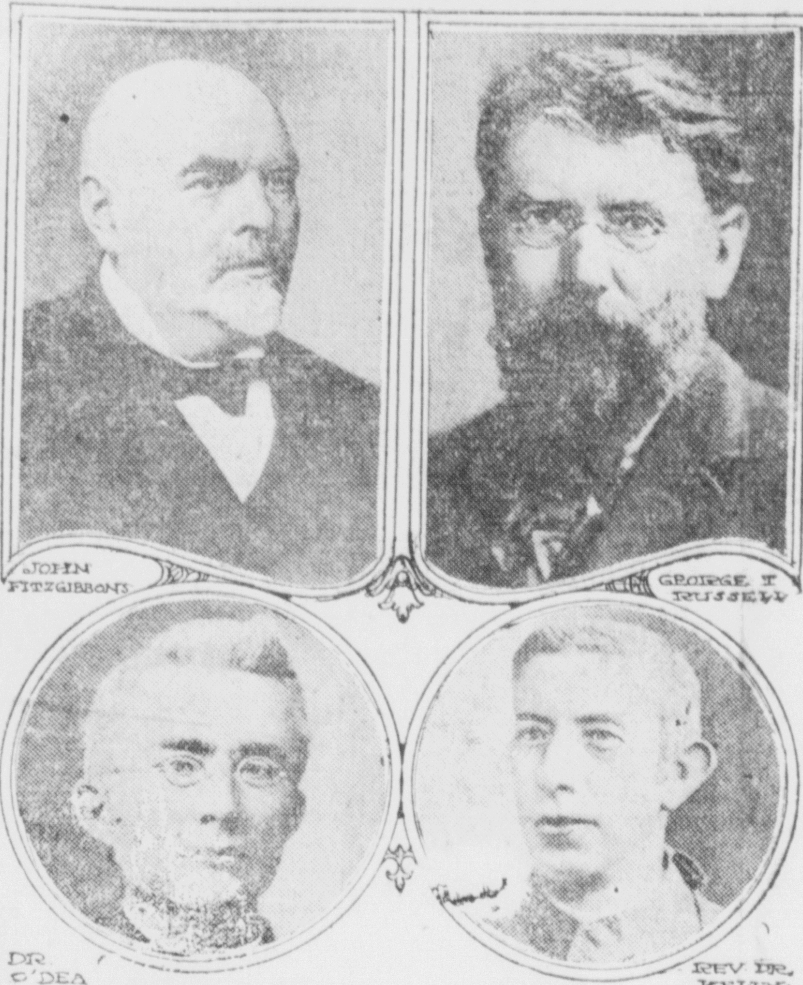

PARIS, JANUARY 29.—(Associated Press) — In connection with the territorial questions before it the peace conference is confronted by no less than three secret treaties, says the Paris edition of the London Daily Mail today.

The first is the treaty between Great Britain, France and Italy disposing of the Adriatic coast which conflicts violently with Jugo-Slav and Czecho-Slovak interests," the Mail continues.

"The second is the treaty between Great Britain and Japan, under which Japan gets the islands in the North Pacific.

The third is the treaty between Great Britain and the king of the Hedjaz, under which Damascus forms a part of the territory given to the Hedjaz kingdom.

ASK SALOONISTS BE BARRED OUT OF DRUG STORES

Would Prevent Saloonists From Entering Drug Business

Legislature Asked to Act by Druggist Association

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., January 29. —The Ohio Pharmaceutical Association representing 4,500 registered pharmacists of Ohio, today asked the legislature to make some provision in the prohibition enforcement laws that would keep saloon keepers, voted out of business, from engaging in the drug business.

Prof. Edward Spease, chairman of the Druggists Legislative Committee, told the committee that reports had been made to the Pharmaceutical Association meeting here yesterday that many saloon keepers were to start drug stores after the state goes dry.

Under the prohibition bill druggists will only be permitted to handle alcohol and wines for sacramental, medicinal and manufacturing purposes. Druggists objected to the plan of the committee in requiring a bond of druggists as one means of keeping undesirable merchants out of business because of the burden that would be imposed in paying premiums on the bonds. They explained that they were already under bond to the Federal government.

SECOND EUROPEAN TRIP BY WILSON MAY BE MADE

Complications Have Arisen Which May Not be Settled Before He Returns to America

(By Associated Press)

Paris, January 29.—Much as President Wilson still hopes to avoid a second trip to Europe, it begins to look as if the trend of the peace conference affairs will cause him to feel impelled to recross the Atlantic in the early spring.

Recent statements, purporting to announce definitely arranged plans to come back to Paris in February and even giving the date of his sailing were founded, it may be said, on no definite information.

The fact is that the President, while hoping that it will turn out that another trip to Europe will be unnecessary, is waiting to see what the remaining fifteen days of his stay in France will bring forth.

DISPOSITION OF COLONIES IS STILL UP

German Colonies Will Not Be Returned To Her, Plans Indicate.

League May Undertake Supervision of Colonies.

(By Associated Press)
Paris, January 29.—Germany's colonies occupied the entire attention of two extended executive sessions of the Supreme Council of the great Powers yesterday and the disposition of this small empire, scattered over the African mainland, in Asia and throughout the Pacific, is presenting a territorial question of magnitude.

The hearings given covered the entire range of these German colonies, as the delegates of Australia, New Zealand and Japan, presented their respective interests in the Pacific groups of islands, Japan and China their interest in the Kiau-Chow and the German concessions at many treaty ports, and the French Minister of Colonies, M. Simon, took up the African colonies embracing Togoland, the Kameruns and German East and Southwest Africa.

General Jan. Christian Smuts, the South African leader, and General Louis Botha, the South African Premier already have been heard on the question of German East Africa, and now it only remains to obtain the viewpoint of the Belgians, who are about to present their ideas of their interests on the colonies adjacent to the Belgian Congo.

It appears to be the generally accepted view among those having interest in the matter that Germany's colonies should not be returned to her.

This in turn has developed another crucial question, namely whether German sovereignty over the colonies should pass to the Powers who may receive them or whether they should be entrusted to a league of nations, which would exercise international control while giving a mandate to such Powers as administer the particular colonies.

This larger question, affecting the general administration of the colonies was considered by the council today, as well as the particular interests involved, and the discussion will be continued tomorrow morning.

German East Africa is the most important territorial possession involved as it has upwards of 7,000,000 inhabitants. Besides being adjacent to the British South African commonwealth it is a necessary line connecting the British in the South and North, thus completing the British territorial chain between Cairo and Cape Colony.

ESSEX IS NOTABLE FOR ITS COMFORT

"The Essex, which has just made its bow to the public, was built to meet the demand for a light weight, moderate priced, high quality automobile of unusual performance, luxury and stability," said the manager of the Hudson-Exeter agency in this city today.

"In the past automobiles have been developed along two widely different lines. One has been toward a cheap, light car. Economy and low first cost have been its chief advantages. The other trend has been toward luxury, comfort and endurance at the expense of high first cost and heavy maintenance expense. The Essex combines the advantages of these two types.

"The car was designed by some of the best engineers in America and is built at the Hudson plant in Detroit. It is moderately priced, economical in operation, has no useless weight, and above all it is comfortable. In performance, luxury and finish it is comparable to the highest priced cars on the market.

"While the endurance and power of the car are unusual, one of its most notable features is its comfort. Although built for five passengers, careful designing has made it possible to provide more room in the front and tonneau than is found in most seven passenger cars. The seats are deep and comfortable the doors open wide and the levers and pedals are within easy reach. The springs are long enough to assure comfortable riding even on the roughest roads.

The resolution made no mention of cable properties, and that phase of the situation was not discussed at the meeting of the committee. Members later expressed varied opinions as to the effect of the legislation on Federal control of those properties which was assumed by presidential proclamation last November under the authority given in the original wire control resolution passed by Congress last July 16.

News of Interest to Women

A new organization, "The American Committee on Devastated France" was launched at the Federated Club rooms following an inspiring presentation of this great social settlement work which America is taking up in the wake of Miss Anne Morgan, the founder of the organization, in which Fayette county women are planning to enlist.

The club room held a gathering of representative women when Mrs. Josephine Kerr, presiding, introduced Mrs. Buchwalter, who for an hour held enthusiastic attention, interesting her hearers to the extent that the organization of a branch society followed.

The American Committee for Devastated France, Inc., is an organization of American men and women operating to relieve the impoverished inhabitants of invaded French territory by rehabilitating them in their homes and helping them to regain their independence through the restoration to agricultural usefulness of war-torn farm lands. The Committee works directly under the authority of the French Government, which by ministerial decree has recognized and approved the organization. The Committee, which was the first agency to see and act upon the necessity for civilian aid in stricken districts, operates in a field covered by no other organization. It is supported wholly by voluntary contributions.

The American Committee for Devastated France is not administering a charity. Its mission is to aid in a work of rehabilitation that is justified on broad economic grounds, and is likewise certain to knit more closely the bonds between the people of France and of America.

France does not need charity. France does not want charity. France will not accept charity. But the destitute people returning to their devastated homes do want and do need the implements with which to begin life anew in a barren land.

Were the case to be presented purely from the standpoint of an enlightened selfishness, it would be apparent that France will be unable to enter into commercial relations profitable alike to herself and to us, until her people are once more re-established upon the soil for which they fought and for which we fought as well. It is sound policy to assist a city that has been wrecked by an earthquake to rehabilitate itself. It is sound policy for the people of the United States to assist in making the war-wrecked areas of France once again fertile and productive.

But in addition there are ties of friendship, the bond of a blood brotherhood, that call us to help France achieve an economic freedom, as we have helped her maintain her political freedom. The soil of France, because it holds our dead, is as sacred, now, to Americans as to the Frenchmen.

More than five million acres of French land have been rendered non-productive as a result of the ravages of war. Hundreds of thousands of men, women and children have returned or are returning to ruined homes and shell-torn fields. The problem that faces France—and the friends of France—is to make these refugees self-supporting as quickly as compatible with sound business management.

That is France's gaping wound which the American Committee for Devastated France is helping to bind up.

Health for France means the restoration of her homes, the homes of her farm workers who are the backbone of her national prosperity.

It is to those who have proved themselves by doing so much, who have rolled bandages for the Red Cross, knitted and made comfort kits for the soldiers, contributed money and done welfare work for our own boys, that he appeal to make one more effort for America's old, dependable, beautiful, imperishably glorious friend—FRANCE.

All this and much more Mrs. Buchwalter brought out, in the illumination of this humanitarian problem and following her address Mrs. Kerr called upon Miss Edith Gardner and Mrs. Eva J. Penn as chairmen of Surgical Dressings and Red Cross workshop, for brief expressions. Both were fully in sympathy with the organization and expressed opinions which were generally endorsed by the women present. Mrs. Penn made the suggestion that the new society might find a sponsor in the wonderfully organized Woman's Committee of National Defense. Mrs. Buchwalter pronounced the suggestion excellent and offered the suggestion from her own experience, that since the society was only temporary, she had found that it was most advantageously operated through the City Federation of clubs, including every woman's organization in the county—clubs, church, fraternal and patriotic societies, and that the co-operation of the Woman's Committee, C. N. D., would be of immense assistance.

The organization was then taken up along these lines, Mrs. Lulu H. Robinson acting as secretary pro tem. Mrs. Josephine Kerr was elected president; Mrs. Carrie B. Willis, vice president; Miss Jean Howatt, treasurer; Miss Elizabeth Johnson, secretary; Mrs. Lulu H. Robinson, assistant secretary.

A meeting will be held at the Federated Club rooms at 2:30 Saturday afternoon, when the organization will be completed and plans discussed. Every woman in the county is invited to attend and co-operate.

Dr. Hugh Hildebrandt, brother of Dr. Paul Hildebrandt, writes from Coblenz where he now is with the "Watch on the Rhine" under date of December 24th. He is attached to Evacuation Hospital No. 6 which has been assigned a private hospital in Coblenz for quarters, "the finest private hospital I have ever seen, with two large operating rooms and private rooms on the second and third floors." His only objection to the present quarters is the length of the beds, which were evidently made for short, fat persons, and are too narrow to permit one to lie diagonally and so increase the length. He speaks also of the display of Xmas toys in the windows—"just the same as we used to sell in the store in Washington C. H.," one game showing a sub sinking the Lusitania. The inhabitants seemed glad that the Americans came there instead of the British or French.

An artistically gotten up little folder, bearing Christmas Greeting "To the Officers and Men of the 79th Division," from Major General Kuhn, Division Commander, has travelled across the seas and shows to its readers the personal interest the head officers felt in their men and the trouble they took to show it. The text is printed in full to give added realization to the public in its words of appreciation.

The greeting which followed was sent by Lt. Harold Craig to his father, Mr. T. H. Craig, but similar ones were sent out by other commanders. To the Officers and Men of the 79th Division.

This, the second Christmas in the life of the 79th Division finds you far from home and friends in a foreign land. Your thoughts are with those near and dear to you, across the water as their thoughts are with you. The Christmas setting is indeed a strange and unusual one for many of you who for the first time in your lives are not celebrating the holiday season with your families.

Your presence here is in a just and righteous cause and the sacrifices you have made and are still making are for the benefit of all civilization and future generations. The Dawn of Peace has come and with it the time of your return to country and home draws near.

In wishing you one and all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year your Division Commander desires to express his appreciation for your gallant conduct in battle and for your faithful services, both, at home and abroad.

Your conduct has been excellent, even under trying conditions, and your Division Commander trusts that one and all will strive to maintain the high reputation justly earned by the 79th Division.

Major General KUHN, Commanding 79th Division.

The Columbus evening Dispatch of Tuesday contained a splendid picture of Carl Hyer ("Doc") son of Dr. F. E. Hyer of Millersville, formerly of Bloomingburg and spoke of his ability in coaching the athletes of Capital University at Columbus.

The Dispatch said in part: "At Capital University 'Doc' instructs the athletes of that school in the proper method of playing basketball. That his methods are worthy, is shown by the work of Capital teams under his jurisdiction. The present quintet at the Lutheran school is regarded as one of the strongest produced there in several years."

"Doc" has been prominent in athletics since his High School days in this city and has won his share of college medals. He comes back home once in a while to visit his father and grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Carman, of Seldon.

Mrs. Josephine Kerr entertained Tuesday evening at the Cherry Hotel with a six o'clock dinner in compliment to Mrs. Edward L. Buckwalter, of Springfield who addressed the women of the county at the Federated Club rooms in the afternoon.

The additional guests were Miss Andrews, sister of Mrs. Buchwalter, who accompanied her over from Springfield; Mrs. Eva J. Penn, chairman of Red Cross workshop; Mrs. V. J. Dahl, President of the Browning Club; Mrs. D. S. Craig, President of Cecilians, and Mrs. Ada Jones, second vice Regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Regent, Mrs. Woodward being detained by illness.

The dinner, following the afternoon meeting and organization of the "American Committee on Devastated France," was a much enjoyed affair for the pudding and the active club women assembled fully appreciated the opportunity of meeting the charming honor guest and discussing with her the new trend and calls of club and patriotic work.

The dinner comprised courses of delicious viands served by the Hotel Cafeteria management in the private dining room, the appointments very inviting.

With Mrs. V. J. Dahl, President in the chair, the Browning Club convened Tuesday night.

Mrs. Lulu H. Robinson was taken into club membership during the preliminary business.

The Department of Household economics was in charge, Mrs. Olive Blakeley, Vice Chairman presiding, and provided rather a departure from the usual club plan, which was quite enjoyed.

The program included two excellent and eminently practical papers, fertile in helpful suggestion to home makers.

Mrs. Ethel Jackson presented, "Personal Marketing," as one of the most necessary features of household economy. She said, "the kitchen is the housewife's trench. From it she fights the enemy effectively or ineffectively; helping her own and the Allies men or helping the enemy according to the way she does her housekeeping and the extent to which she practices food conservation."

"If you want a thing well done do it yourself" applies to personal marketing as well as to shopping or other business.

Mrs. Jackson outlined the development of the up-to-date grocery and described the "Fifty Wigly" stores, the self-serving grocery where everything is wrapped and labelled and people select their own groceries and pay for them at the Cashier's desk. These groceries claim that this elimination of help is of benefit to patrons in lower prices.

Mrs. Minnie Bush treated of the kitchen as a "House of Efficiency" and pointed out the necessity of a modern kitchen, thoroughly up-to-date in its equipment for the convenience of a housekeeper. Men install conveniences in their business offices, why not women in their culinary departments?

Two suggestion meeting with special approval were the raising of the kitchen sink so that the back of the housekeeper would not be broken every time she worked over it and the placing of the refrigerator near the kitchen door if ice was not put in from the outside.

The papers were fully discussed. Miss Jessie Sunkle delighted the club with two charming songs, "The Americans Come" and as an encore, "I Hear a Thrush at Eve."

The women were then invited to the dining room where a pretty tea table with water garden in the cen-

Mrs. Smuts, when an actress appearing in London, married Lord Hope, son of the Earl of Newcastle. Their marriage created a world sensation. As Lady Hope she became the owner of the famous Hope diamond. Due to the illness of her husband, who is a cousin of General Smuts, former member of the British War Cabinet, Mrs. Smuts is reported to have obtained a position as janitor in the Seattle apartment house where they are living.

Handsomely engraved cards have been received by relatives and friends in this city bearing the following announcement:

Mr. and Mrs. William Matthew Zentmyer announce the marriage of their daughter Caroline Simpson to Mr. Samuel John McDowell on Tuesday the twenty-eighth of January. Nineteen hundred and nineteen. Newark, Ohio. At home after February fifteenth. Flint, Michigan.

The young bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDowell, formerly of Bloomingburg, but now residing in Dayton, and nephew of Mrs. Anna S. Jones of this city. A graduate of the local high school, Class of '12, and the Ohio State University in the Department of Engineering, a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity, he was immensely popular in all school activities as well as a favorite with school mates.

Mr. McDowell, a skillful ceramist, for some time has been employed at Flint, Mich., where he will take his bride to make their home.

Many friends in this city and county join with those in Newark and Flint in extending best wishes.

In the departure of Miss Agnes Peter, daughter of the late Dr. Armistead Peter of Washington, D. C., for France to take up Y. M. C. A. work, there sailed the lineal descendant of Mrs. George Washington, to give aid in time of need to the land of General Lafayette, who upon the several occasions of his visits to this country was the honored guest of General and Mrs. Washington at Mt. Vernon.

It is to be doubted, says the Washington Star, if any other lineal descendant of Martha Washington is today in France in any capacity—certainly not in Y. M. C. A. work, the extent and importance of which, to stricken France from the outset of the war, can never be adequately narrated.

Miss Peter was born and has lived all her life at Tudor place, on Georgetown Heights, in the stately colonial home of her grandmother, the late Mrs. Beverly Kennon, who, as a child, knew General Lafayette at Mount Vernon, and who had been there the daily companion of Lafay-

DON'T SPOIL 'EM SAYS SPEAKER ON NEW PROBLEM

New Problem Must Be Met in Sensible Manner, Declares Expert.

(By Associated Press)

Philadelphia, January 29—"Don't spoil the boys when they come back," was the plea of Russell C. Lowell, of the Federal Board of Vocational Education when he spoke here recently.

Mr. Lowell said he thought that some of those who had been maimed in the war were spoiled for the future by being feted too much and adored as heroes when they reached their own home towns. He cited several cases where young men had practically refused to undertake to learn new trades after being unfitted by their wounds for continuing at their old trades, because, they said, they did not need to work now.

After a time, Mr. Lowell declared, a man tires of such idleness and false honor, and he either becomes mentally sick and despondent or gets quite crooked in his methods and begins preying upon people instead of trying to earn a living.

Mr. Lowell stated that one of the chief difficulties the Federal educational system is encountering is that of getting hold of the maimed men when they have returned to this country. They filter back to their own districts, and unless properly taught to start life anew are apt to reach a mental stage where it is difficult to get them to overcome the real difficulties which exist in the re-education in trades.

Chillicothe, Jan. 29.—(By Associated Press)—Coal is said to have been discovered in Franklin township, Ross county, by Nelson Johnson, according to word received here today. The type of coal discovered is cannel, according to the report and lies only six feet under the ground.

Ford THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford truck is really a greater necessity to the farmer than is a team of horses. Certainly it is a greater utility and economy for him. It saves time, it gives prompt and almost unlimited service along the entire line of farm work from carrying the milk to marketing the products of the farm. It is not expensive to maintain and has all the Ford simplicity in mechanism that makes it easy to operate. The price, too, is attractive, about the price of a team of horses; $550, without body, f. o. b. Detroit.

The Peculiar Unrest

The unrest affecting so many people in the world at this time seems to be the result of a most peculiar and a most dangerous state of mind.

Thousands and thousands of people seem to have centered all their energies upon bringing about the establishment of a condition of affairs which will relieve them entirely from the necessity of work.

Their ambition seems to be, not that of the normal man to seek work, take joy in work and satisfaction in his accomplishments, but to avoid work and to attain a position, by some means or other, where no work will be required.

Another strange feature, in connection with conditions is that those restless disturbers striving to attain an impossible state and one which would make them miserable if they succeeded in attaining it, seem to think that the government can bring that condition about, through legislative enactments, and failure to do so is cause for condemning the governmental form and institutions.

Everywhere laborers are demanding more money and shorter working hours, demanding more to eat, more to wear, more pleasures and more luxuries and demanding all these at a lower cost than the law of supply and demand fixes.

It seems, sometimes, that more people have been swept away in the wild swirls of "reform" demands than ever before in all history. Sometimes, too, the possible outcome is enough to make men tremble.

There is entirely too much of a tendency to look back upon what has been done with a feeling of satisfaction and contentment, a feeling that our nation is rich and prosperous and our mission in life, so far as work is concerned, is concluded and that, hereafter, all any of us are required to do is to live in ease and idleness, consuming more and more and giving no thought to production or cost.

The success of the human life is always in the future. It must be worked for to be attained.

The success of a nation is in its opportunities. It is great as the people make it great by taking advantage of the opportunity it offers them to work. Success is what we produce with and what we make—work out—of our blessings and our opportunities.

The only happy individuals are the industrious working people.

The Creator has planted the instinct to work and to struggle forward in every normal human being.

What has destroyed it in so many people?

Too much promise of reform never fulfilled and never intended to be fulfilled, it is more than possible, has played its part in producing the present unhealthy state of mind which is fast becoming a menace.

Technical Officials

The tardiness with which the government, meaning the individuals placed in positions of public trust, all too frequently, discharges the nation's obligations to the men who are fighting or have fought for the preservation of the nation, is exasperating not only to the parties concerned but to the people generally.

There seems to be on the part of many officials a determination to be too technical and a desire to save a few dollars for the nation at the expense of men who are entitled to receive it as a meagre compensation. The pay of the soldiers and sailors scarcely amounts to more than a token of appreciation any way, and public servants would come much nearer to meeting the desires of the people if they would endeavor to make just payment instead of holding tight to a few paltry dollars until it is literally pried away from them.

The instances in which our soldiers or their dependents have been, entirely deprived of the small sums which are justly due them and intended for them by a patriotic and appreciating people, or compelled to waste their time and energy in forcing officials to meet the obligations of the nation are entirely too frequent.

The people of the nation want and demand economy in public service, but they do not want any money which has been withheld from men who have served in the army and navy, by resort to and insistence upon some technicality.

There is no reason why the government shouldn't pay its soldiers promptly and in full. A failure to do so means individual fault. The government is the individuals in the service and if those individuals who are technical to the extent of being unjust they should be ousted.

POEM FOR TODAY

DELIVER ME

From the narrowness of bigotry,
The foolishness of pride,
The crime of brutal selfishness,
Vulgarity of "side,"
From littleness of thinking,
From mock humility,
From the sin of self-deception,
O God, deliver me!

From lies that grow in telling,
From little stingy ways,
From lack of saving vision,
From soul that never plays,
From swell-head and from bragging,
From instability,
From knocking and from nagging,
O God, deliver me!

From flattery and fawning,
From envy and from hate,
From spirit soured and gloomy,
From fear of any fate,
From worship of the dollar,
From insincerity,
From the curse of empty living,
O God, deliver me!

"WE'RE THE BOYS THAT CARRY THE HOD"

IS REMARKABLE MAN AND DOES NOTABLE WORK

(By Associated Press)

London, January 23.—Colonel T. E. Lawrence of the British army, who recently arrived in London with a son of the Sheriff of Mecca to give information concerning the Arabs' aspirations for independence is characterized by some London newspapers as "one of the most remarkable men produced by the war."

A fair-haired young Englishman of 29, small of stature Colonel Lawrence gave such services to the Arab cause that he was treated as a sheriff and given the additional rank of emir, which is equivalent to that of prince. No other European or Christian, according to London Daily Mail, has ever received such a distinction at the hands of the royal family which is the senior descendant of Mohammed.

Before the war Colonel Lawrence was a student of history at Oxford. As he was able to speak two Arabian dialects, he was sent by the War Office in 1914 to do intelligence work in Egypt. Later he was assigned to aid in the negotiations with the King of the Hedjaz who revolted against the Turks at Medina in June, 1916, afterward joining the Sheriff's military service. He adopted the full Arab field kit of flowing robe, headpiece and golden dagger.

With Sheriff Feisul, he planned the blowing up of troop and munition trains on the Hedjaz line, and so successful were their operations that the Turks put a price on their heads of $5,000 each if taken alive, and $35,000 dead.

They blew up seventeen trains, one a great troop train which contained Djemal Pasha, commander in chief of the Turkish army, and his staff. For this train Colonel Lawrence lay in wait for nearly three days and nights. Several trains were permitted to pass in safety. Then came the big one and Colonel Lawrence pressed a button that set off a mine. The two huge engines were toppled into a ravine and the train was wrecked. Djemal Pasha's car near the end was derailed, and the commander in chief was launched into space. Uninjured, he picked himself up from the sand and fled for life, tearing off as he ran his medals, decorations and capulettes. These were found later and given to Colonel Lawrence.

Wonderland Hearts of the World

$5 a seat

(Exact copy of letter sent to District Attorney Edward Swann, of New York.)

"Dear Mr. District Attorney:—May we publicly take advantage to convey to you our sincere thanks for the splendid work done by your direction, on the part of the Police Department and your own subordinates in breaking up the 'gangs' of ticket speculators who had become such a public nuisance in front of the Forty-fourth Street Theater selling tickets for D. W. Griffith's 'Hearts of the World'?"

"These speculators by devious tricks had secured certain tickets which they were selling at $3, $4, and even $5, each to the public anxious to see Mr. Griffith's latest achievement."

"The moment these 'gangs' got wind of the order from your department they faded away into oblivion."

"Today the public can go to the box-office of the theatre without being pestered by these gentry who block the streets."

"As managers of Mr. Griffith's 'Hearts of the World,' and for the patrons who wish to see it, we desire to publicly thank you and the Police Department for all that you have done in the interests of the public."

New York City.

Not for one night, not for one seat, but time after time patrons who were unable to secure tickets at the box office voluntarily paid as high as $5, the excessive price demanded for choice seats by ticket speculators who realized in advance the tremendous success of D. W. Griffith's "Hearts of the World."

"CARUSO NIGHT" at the famous Metropolitan Opera House, New York, never drew greater crowds than those attracted to this masterpiece.

Never in the history of the theatre has anything created such an absolute and complete sensation as Mr. Griffith's latest and greatest achievement, requiring more than eighteen months in the making.

The foremost critics in the United States and Europe have proclaimed it a greater production than Mr. Griffith's former triumph, "THE BIRTH OF A NATION."

This magnificent spectacle will be shown for 4 days, beginning next Monday night, with a matinee each day.

BEGINS SERIES OF MEETINGS AT GRACE CHURCH TONIGHT

Rev. J. W. Mahood, D. D., of Toronto, Canada, who, together with his daughter, Miss Etta Mahood, arrives this afternoon to co-operate with the pastor, officials and the people of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church in a series of special evangelistic services beginning tonight (Wednesday) at 7:30 o'clock.

There will be both afternoon and evening meetings Thursday and Friday. No meetings on Saturday.

The afternoon meetings begin at 3:00 o'clock and continue until 4:00 o'clock. At 4:00 o'clock Thursday and Friday Miss Mahood, a college graduate and a graduate of the Y. W. C. A. training school, who has spent some time in Y. W. C. A. work, will give health culture lectures with exercises. The exercises follow largely the Flynn system. These are given free to all women and girls over 14 years and last just 30 minutes.

Dr. Mahood within the last two years has held meetings in Columbus, O., at Third Avenue Church where Dr. Frederick E. Ross is pastor, and at North Church where Rev. Dr. Bickel is pastor. They both are very hearty in their endorsement of his work. He comes to Washington C. H., from a successful meeting at Williamsport, Penn.

The famous late Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman wrote this concerning him: "Rev. J. W. Mahood, D. D., has few equals as an evangelist in the United States. He is so safe and sane in his methods, so evidently consecrated in his life, so considerate of the pastors with whom he labors, and so desirous of seeing people brought to Christ, that wherever he has gone the people have received him with delight, have followed his ministry with enthusiasm and have counted his evangelistic effort, so far as I know, in every case a success."

FOUR MORE NIGHTS SPECIAL MEETINGS

Only four more nights of the splendid meetings which are now in progress at the First Presbyterian church. It behooves those who have not been in attendance to embrace this opportunity and hear Dr. Faulconer's simple and forceful presentation of the gospel. Rev. McWilliams' heartsome singing and join with the choir in congregational praise.

There was an excellent attendance Tuesday night a strong sermon and a beautiful solo by Rev. McWilliams. Dr. Faulconer presented the subject, "Eyes Opened."

He said in part: The miracles of Christ were many, such as opening the blind eyes, un-stopping deaf ears, making the dumb to speak, and raising the dead. All describe the spiritual condition of man. He work a great miracle when He saves a man. He gives him spiritual sight, speech and life.

Jesus stopped at the request of the beggar. He never passes by any one that needs him. He never fails to hear the feeble cry of distress.

He placed at the beggars disposal all the wealth of His power, in "The question, what wilt thou that I shall do unto thee?" How simple was his request—sight. He received it, at once. So it is with salvation, it is received at once immediately we pass from death into life.

Remember that Jesus was passing by this was the beggar's last chance. Jesus never passes by any one unless that soul has reached the stage of final rejection.

No one is ever lost for any other reason. Request Him to save.

ARCHITECTS BUSY DRAFTING PLANS

Everything is being shaped by The Sunlight Creameries for prompt and speedy action in the construction of its huge plant in this city just as soon as the weather will permit, which is expected within the next few weeks—some time in March.

Prominent Chicago architects recently visited this city in company with members of the firm, and definite plans were taken up, as well as the preliminary engineering work done for the first of a series of buildings to be erected.

Within a short time the necessary trackage will be constructed and after this is done matters in connection with the big plant will take up a new life and from that time onward the former sales barn tract will be a scene of great activity.

In all construction and other work the concern plans to utilize as much local labor as possible.

TAX COLLECTION IS $300,000.00

In the near future as speedily as the present business is closed up, the work of collecting special assessments by court action will be taken up and the necessary proceedings filed.

LONG ILLNESS TERMINATES IN SLEEP ETERNAL

Death Ends Long and Useful Life of Mrs. John L. Persinger in This City.

Injury of Many Months Ago Indirectly Responsible for Death of Prominent Woman.

Within a fortnight of the birthday milestone which would have rounded out four score years of vigorous living, Mrs. Jane Peebles Persinger, widow of the late John Lewis Persinger, passed on to that haven from which no traveler returns, at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon, at the home on Dayton Avenue.

A woman of remarkable personality, cast in a heroic mould, whose strength of character was only equalled by her brilliant mentality, Mrs. Persinger had refused to yield to those infirmities which attend the oncoming years and even the accident resulting in a fractured hip and confining her to her home for many long months and indirectly causing her death, did not daunt her valiant spirit. Those who knew her well recall the alert mind, the wonderful executive ability, the sterling qualities which were the heritage of her Scotch parents and which made her a power in whatever circle she entered and reached their highest development in her home life. She was a woman singularly fitted to enter this pioneer family which has been identified with Fayette county from its primeval days.

Jane Peebles Persinger was born February 15th, 1839, and was the oldest child of Helen McDowell and Andrew Peebles, of Harlam Heights, New York. When but a small child her family moved to Chillicothe, where she was educated and at one time attended the private school of Dr. Woodrow, President Wilson's grandfather.

On March the 14th, 1861, she was united in marriage to John Lewis Persinger and to them were born 10 children, 6 sons and four daughters. The husband and 3 sons preceded the surviving children being: Charles Persinger; Mrs. Emma Pugsley, Fanny, Dr. Carey Persinger, Mrs. Minnie Case, Jesse and Rilla. After a short residence at the home of the grandfather, David Persinger, at the Persinger homestead, one of the county's landmarks, on the Snow-hill pike, Mr. and Mrs. Persinger went to housekeeping at Plymouth, moving to the present home in this city the Christmas of 1888. The past thirty years Mrs. Persinger lived in this home surrounded by the devoted affection of her family; here she passed away Tuesday afternoon, and in funeral services will be held Thursday morning at eleven o'clock.

Mrs. Persinger was a devoted member of the First Presbyterian church and Rev. J. L. McWilliams will have charge of the services. Friends are asked to kindly omit flowers. The interment will be made in the family lot in the Washington cemetery.

HAVE DEMAND FOR GOOD FARM HANDS

While the cry is being raised that many persons are out of work, the fact remains that the demand for good farm laborers is greater than the supply according to word given out at the office of the U. S. Employment Bureau at the court house.

Men who are wanting work are expected to apply, and farmers who want farm hands are urged to make their wants known at the earliest possible moment, stating the kind of farm hand desired, how many, and when they will want them to begin work.

DENTISTS CHANGE NAME OF SOCIETY

At a meeting of the dentists of the city this week the name of the society was changed from The E. C. Hamilton Dental Society to the C. E. Page Dental Society, honoring the last member of the society to be summoned by death.

Dr. C. W. Sadders was elected president of the society succeeding the late Dr. Page.

Plans were made for holding the annual dental inspection in the public schools and it was decided to close the dental offices of the city each Wednesday during a period of five months while the weather is warm. Instead of four months, as heretofore. The closing period will begin in May.

CLASSIFICATION OF PROPERTY IS HELD INVALID

Old Uniform Provision Remains in Force and Officials See Hard Work Ahead

Columbus, O., January 29.—Long awaited, the decision of the Supreme Court were handed down late Tuesday on pending taxation questions, thereby furnishing the General Assembly with its directions for raising of revenues.

By a vote of four to three of the Justices, the classification amendment is held to be in conflict with the so-called Shinn mortgage exemption amendment, and therefore is a nullity.

By a vote of six to one the Court held to be valid the Cincinnati ordinances for raising of revenues through occupational taxes.

The classification decision means that the old uniform rule provision in force since 1851 continues to be the basic organic law of Ohio. This defeats any attempt to obtain additional funds through classification of property for taxation, which was counted upon to produce additional revenue.

The only additional power granted is to the General Assembly to enact new laws on mortgage exemptions, relieving from taxation either the encumbered portion of real estate or the evidence of indebtedness secured by realty mortgage. Inasmuch as this would tend to reduce the taxation duplicate, it offers little hope as a solution for taxation troubles and deficits of revenue.

The decisions came late in the afternoon after the two branches had dined through unimportant resolutions and matters of no great moment, so that opportunity was not afforded for close study of the effects of the Court's decision nor of plans of the leaders of the bi-partisan Taxation Committee. A meeting, however, was held last night, at which first steps were taken to formulate a policy.

The action of the Court was a deep disappointment to the advocates of classification. The favorable vote for culmination of a generation of effort by progressive taxation authorities and from the new system great things were expected.

A propaganda to insure the passage of classification legislation was under way and further study had been planned to enlarge the scope of classification.

With this hope of relief destroyed, there only can be recourse to other schemes. These include inheritance, income and occupational taxes.

Chairman Frank Parrett, of the Taxation Committee is converted to income taxes, but this source is impaired by reason of the inability to grant any exemption from personal property taxes for those who pay the income taxes, so that it will be difficult to frame a satisfactory solution.

WAR AID TO DYERS

(By Associated Press)
Cleveland, Ohio, January 29.—So much dyeing of old clothes as a war economy was done last year that the business members of the National Association of Dyers and Cleaners increased $10,000,000, delegates who attended the convention opening here today reported. Prosperity was reported by all members present.

THE ETERNAL CALL FOR WELL KNOWN BUSINESS MAN

Early Wednesday morning death ended the struggle which Forest W. Cline had waged against pneumonia and the hopes of anxious relatives, business associates and friends in great numbers were rudely shattered as the word went out from the Arlington Hotel that this well known young farmer and business man had answered the summons at the age of 36 years.

Two weeks ago Mr. Cline succumbed to an attack of the influenza, which eight days ago developed into pneumonia and no effort of medical attention proved of any avail.

Forest W. Cline was widely known as one of Fayette county's wealthiest and most influential younger farmers, stock raisers and dealers, as well as a successful business man and affable good fellow. He operated six hundred acres of land in Paint township upon progressive lines and engaged extensively in stock breeding as well as buying, being a member of the firm of Cline and Holland at the time of his death.

For some time, in connection with his brother, Sergt. Ralph Cline, he owned and operated the Cline and Cline Garage on S. Fayette St., and after disposing of the garage retained stock and assisted in the management of the Arcade Garage. Natural business ability, good judgment and energy were factors in his success.

In the fraternal and social as well as in business relations Mr. Cline's death is deeply deplored. He was a member of the B. P. O. E. of this city and of the Masonic Lodge in Bloomingburg, and belonged to the Scottish rite class initiated in Columbus last fall, business preventing his attendance at the last moment.

Some years ago Mr. Cline lost his wife, who was the youngest daughter of Mrs. Electa Selsor, but continued to reside with his two young daughters at their country home above Bloomingburg until a couple of years ago, since which time he has made his home in this city. He is survived by two daughters, Helen and Ercell, aged twelve and eight years, who since the breaking up of the home have lived with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yore, in Bloomingburg, his mother, Mrs. Jeanette Cline, and one brother, Sergt. Ralph Cline.

The body was taken from the hotel to the Klever undertaking rooms from where it will be removed to the home of Mrs. Jeanette Cline on East Paint street Thursday morning.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 1:30 p. m. at Grace M. E. Church, Rev. Cherrington the officiating minister. The B. P. O. E. No. 129 will also take part in the service. Burial will be made in the Bloomingburg cemetery.

MORE COFFEE BEING USED

San Juan, P. R., January 12.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Porto Rico is consuming fifty per cent more coffee today than she did before the island "went dry" according to a San Juan coffee dealer.

This fact, together with an island coffee crop of only half of what it was last year and a heavy demand from Spain and Cuba, has sent up prices throughout the island.

The coffee market here began jumping a week or two ago and it has been going up ever since. Retailers found the price almost doubled over night and the restaurants last week raised their prices to ten cents a cup.

San Juan dealers say coffee is likely to go higher than the present price of 44 cents retail if the outside demand continues as strong as now.

GOLD PRODUCTION GETS ATTENTION

London, January 2.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—"A subsidy for the production of gold appears to us to be fundamentally unsound," reports the Gold Production Committee, consisting of Lord Inchcape, Sir Thomas Elliot, Sir Charles Addis and W. H. N. Goschen. Early last year a committee called the Gold Producers Committee advised the Chancellor of the Exchequer that unless the gold producing industry was helped, the already diminishing supply of gold must suffer and that the maintenance of the present gold standard of value might be met by a special grant of some kind.

The Gold Production Committee as quoted above, does not approve a subsidy, and further says the gold production of the Empire rose steadily from 51,000,000 pounds in 1910 to 59,000,000 pounds in 1917. Although there has been a decline since it is regarded as due to natural causes and decreased labor efficiency caused by the war.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL
Thousands Have Discovered Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.
His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.
These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth?
Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards'
Olive Tablets take its place.
Most headaches, "biliousness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "foggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits.

ASKS 15 MILLIONS FOR OHIO ROADS FOR FIVE YEARS

Resolution Introduced by Ohio
Solon Would Provide Employment For All

Columbus, Ohio, January 29.—(By Associated Press)—Fifteen million dollars a year for five years will be spent on good roads in Ohio if Congress makes an appropriation requested in a resolution introduced yesterday by Representative Beetham, majority floor leader in the lower house.

Beetham's resolution requests Congress to appropriate $1,000,000,000 for good roads in five years, to be apportioned among states which raise a sum for the purpose equal to that obtained from the Federal Government.

Ohio's apportionate share of the $1,000,000,000 would be $7,400,000 each year for five years. By the states adding an equal sum, the expenditure in Ohio would be nearly $15,000,000 a year.

Beetham's resolution says that at the present rate of progress it would take two centuries to improve the roads of the country.

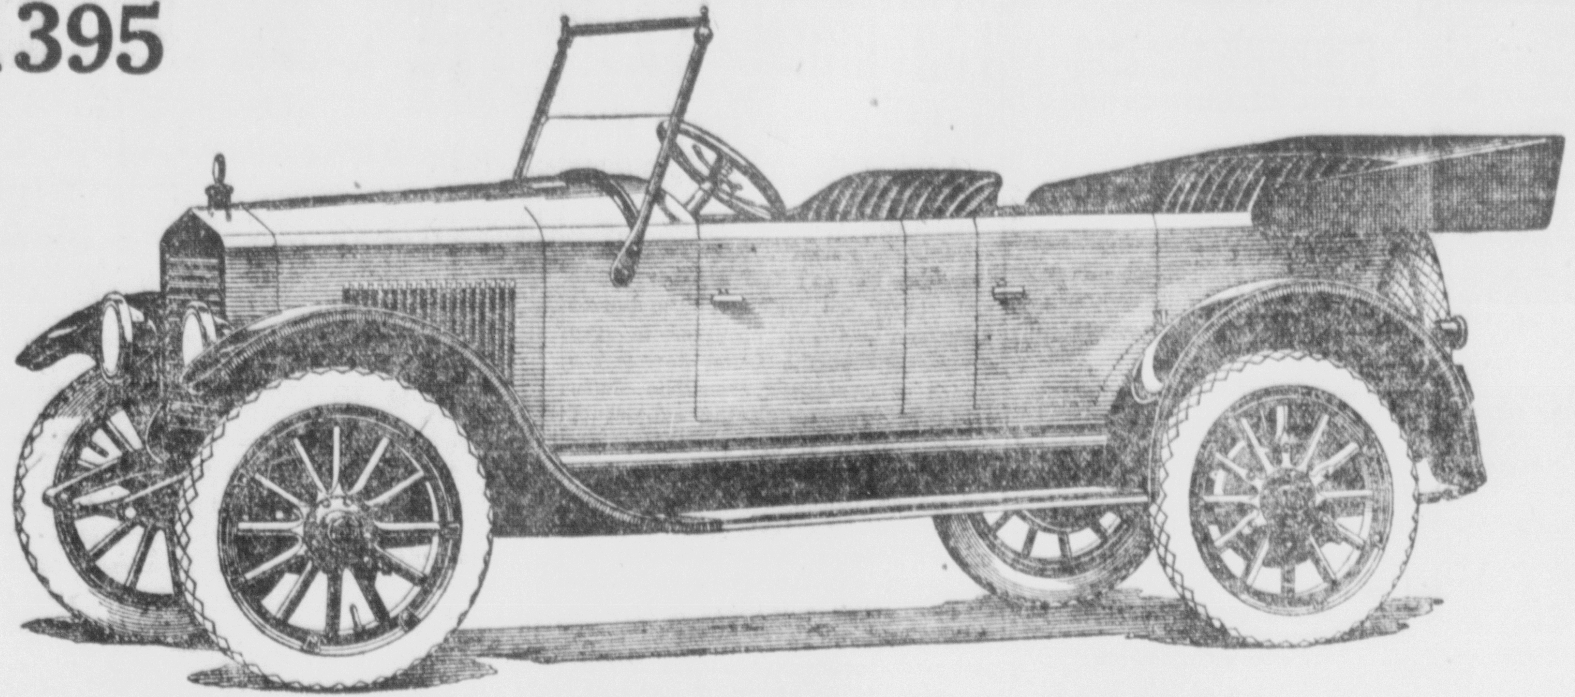

"Roads are the life of a nation," he says. "Let us stop working at this task in a jiffy way. Let us stop working among the stars and get down to where the mud is."

The immediate reason for asking for such an appropriation at this time, however, is to provide labor during reconstruction and help to prevent unemployment.

Come Ride in the Essex

Its First Showing—A Light Weight Quality Car

We Want Your Opinion of It

Automotordom has waited a year for the Essex. Dealers have ventured all sorts of descriptions for it. But today it is having its premier showing in hundreds of cities and towns throughout America.

For months the trade papers have given first prominence to whatever news they could get of its details.

Their interest was awakened because it combines the advantages of the light low priced car, and its economy, with the performance, sturdiness and beauty of the large and costly car. One leading writer proclaimed the Essex a new development in motor car transportation.

Don't you want to be among the first in this locality to see the car that has awakened this interest? We wish you would come and ride in it for

You Are To Do Its Advertising

We have long wanted to reveal the details of the Essex. But the manufacturers said they wanted the car to speak for itself. They said no description that could be applied to it would create as favorable an impression as would result from a ride in the car.

Even now we hesitate to praise the Essex since we can say nothing that has not already been claimed in praise for some other car.

So the endorsement it is to receive is such as you and other thousands of motorists volunteer to give. All we ask is that you come see and ride in it.

We Were Surprised— Let Us Surprise You

When we went to the factory to see the Essex we wanted to know in advance something of its details. But we were told that was for us to discover as we inspected and rode in the car.

Perhaps we would have been skeptical and have concluded there was nothing unusual about the Essex if we had not known the men who are building it. But knowing them as we do and knowing the quality of cars they build, our faith and curiosity were aroused.

What a Ride Proved to Us

Our first experience was a ride over a road so rough that you would willingly go miles out of the way to avoid it if you were in the average light car.

We took it at high speed, but the effect in both the front and rear seats was more in keeping with what you might expect in riding over a smooth pavement.

Then we drove into soft sand where the wheels sunk in below the felloes, going through as though it were thin mud.

Every test that reveals performance was shown us. There were no squeaks. The motor did not labor. The car had been in similar service for months and still retained its appearance of newness. These are things we want to show you. A demonstration like that which surprised us is ready for you if you will come to our store.

The Essex is Built To Endure

Every part that wears is adjustable. Hard service can not loosen the body nor twist the radiator. It is so sturdily built that the frame remains solid and rigid over the roughest roads and through the hardest service. The motor is practically free from vibration. If you were blindfolded and placed in the Essex without having seen it and then were given such a ride as we want you to take with us, you would likely say you were in a large and costly car.

After you have ridden in the Essex we will tell you all about it.

Then, we think you will be so enthusiastic you will tell everyone you know that you have ridden in the most surprising car you have ever seen.

GRIFFITH ROMANCE WELL CONCEIVED

D. W. Griffith's magnificent spectacle, "Hearts of the World," will be the special attraction at the Wonder-land Theatre February 3 to 6 inclusive.

The coming of peace makes particularly timely this tremendous historical document of Mr. Griffith's. The ending of the great struggle in Europe adds a peculiar interest to the data collected by the famous producer during the long months he worked amid the din and death of battle to bring back to the American people a romantic story woven about the splendid people of France; their great love, their light laughter, their hopes and fears, the heroic fortitude of the women, the glory of the men in battle.

Mr. Griffith has used the world war merely as a background for a story as romantic and beautiful as "Romeo and Juliet," and with as much hearty laughter and good wholesome fun as may be found in an average musical comedy. In this respect "Hearts of the World" stands unique among productions made in France. Mr. Griffith has shown to the American people the beauty of France; the music of her moonlight, the perfume of her blossoms, the charm of her walls and her streets, her streams and path-ways—ways that the legion of Caesar found beautiful centuries ago.

A feature of the engagement here will be a large symphony orchestra rendering a musical program composed especially for "Hearts of the World," and which has received high praise from musical critics, both for the beauty of the score and the admirable way in which it fits every scene and action of the production.

800 BANK CLERKS ARE DISMISSED

London, January 29.—(By Associated Press)—Eight hundred women clerks employed by the Bank of England as a war measure have been notified that their services will no longer be required, but that 200 of them may make special applications for as many permanent positions in the clerical staff. The salary will be $15 a week with a pension of half that amount after 25 years' service.

"Women will certainly be placed on a permanent footing in the future," was the opinion of one bank manager, while another felt that they were "excellent and charming" but they could not "work under pressure."

Nothing boosts the value of a blessing like its removal.

ROOKIE MAY SUCCEED PRATT OR BAKER

WILSON FEWSTER

Wilson ("Bill") Fewster, rookie infielder purchased by the New York Yankees in 1917, may be seen as a regular next season in the position of either Frank Baker or Derrill Pratt, both of whom are reported to have quit the team. Fewster displayed splendid form in the few games he has played with the team and it is probable that Manager Huggins will select him for an infield post.

WAS RESTLESS AT NIGHT

Sufferers from kidney trouble experience backache, rheumatic pains, aches in joints and muscles, shooting pains and other torturous afflictions. E. W. Kitt, R. F. D. 2, Box 9 Shorters, Ala., writes: "I used Foley Kidney Pills as I was so restless over night with pain in the small of my back and side. They did me good." Blackmer & Tanquary. Adv.

STARTS FUNDS FOR SAILORS

Liverpool, January 15.—(By Associated Press)—J. Bruce Ismay, son of the founder of the White Star shipping line, has given 25,000 pounds in War Loan stock to inaugurate a "National Mercantile Marine Fund" the object of which he says, "is to mark his admiration of the very splendid and gallant manner in which the officers and men of all ranks of the British mercantile marine have carried on throughout the war."

The fund is intended primarily to provide grants or pensions to seamen and to provide for widows and orphans of British marines.

A successful man is entitled to less praise than the man who makes another effort after each failure.
